The Scarsdale Police Department recently participated in a two week initiative aimed at getting drivers to buckle up. The department joined a statewide effort targeting drivers who operate their vehicles without wearing seatbelts and who fail to buckle in child passengers.

Scarsdale Police Traffic Safety Campaign results: 156 summonses issued.

During the enforcement wave officers were looking for and ticketing adult operators who put themselves and children at risk by not buckling up everyone in the vehicle.

The Scarsdale Police Department issued 156 summonses to motorists in the traffic safety campaign that occurred between May 21, 2018 and June 3, 2018 as part of the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee, Buckle-Up New York program.

29 motorists were cited for not wearing seatbelts and an additional 1 was cited for not having their child properly secured by a seatbelt.

Among other violations, 9 were issued for using a cell phone while driving, 20 were issued for disobeying traffic controls, 18 speeding violations were issued, and 1 was arrested for DWI.
