Town Board of Assessment Review Vacancies Announced

The Personnel Committee of the Village Board of Trustees has announced two (2) impending vacancies on the Town Board of Assessment Review.

Appointments to the Town Board of Assessment Review are for a five-year term. This Board's basic purpose is to review annual property tax grievances filed with respect to property tax assessments.

Trustee Seth Ross, Chair of the Personnel Committee, encourages residents to apply for these positions by submitting their names, together with a listing of community service and relevant professional background.

Applications may be submitted in one of two ways:

- Via the Village Website – Visit the following link:
